St. Ann School has chosen to permit students access to computers and telecommunication resources to further its educational goals and objectives. Reasonable care has been taken to assure the appropriateness and educational quality of the material available through the use of educational software and telecommunications. However, parents and guardians are warned that St. Ann School and the Diocese of Wilmington do not have total control of the information on the Internet. Parent and guardians are the primary authority responsible for imparting the standards of ethical and legal conduct their child should follow.

I hereby release St. Ann School and the Diocese of Wilmington, its personnel and any other institutions with which it is affiliated, from any and all claims and damages of any nature arising from my child's use of, or inability to use, the Internet access, including, but not limited to claims that may arise from the unauthorized use of the system to purchase products or services.

I will instruct my child regarding any restrictions against accessing materials that are in addition to the restrictions set forth by the Acceptable Use Policy. I will emphasize to my child the importance of following rules for personal safety.

As the parent or guardian of this student, I have read the Guidelines for Acceptable Use of Technology for St. Ann School.
